At Nancy the congressman met Gen. Nivelle, former chief of the French army, who told them about the part the marines had played in the battle of Chateau-Thierry. Gen. Nivelle referred to the valor and dash displayed by the United States troops in that engagement as wonderful.

The congressional party went to Europe on July 15 aboard the battleship Arkansas. The trip was on an army transport. The trip going and returning was without incident. On the return leaving Brest the passenger ship, after clothing day and night, and had life preservers beside them all the time. The same precautions were taken when nearing the coast of the United States.

TOOK OUT DREADFUL SORENESS.
When the kidneys are weakened or overworked so that they fail to filter and throw all impurities out of the blood, the poison remains in the system and backaches, soreness, lameness and rheumatic pains are likely to develop.
